Central High School has this June completed its fourth school year under wartime adversities and complications. The thoughts, efforts and hearts of our countrymen have all been turned to the winning of this war. Many of Central's alumni have fought and died for their country.

The circus theme of the Centralian might seem inappropriate to many people in such times as these, but we were trying to get away from the war theme to something more cheerful when we chose it. In any event, we, the staff, hope that you will like this book and cherish it for many years.

Dedicated to

MR. O. F. DUBACH

To our friend and helper, we, the Senior Class, dedicate this 1945 Centralian. His understanding of human nature, his genuine interest in people and their problems, his friendliness and kindliness with young and old, have endeared him not only to us, but to thousands of others who are scattered over the world today.

By progressive planning, tireless industry and keen judgment, he has become an outstanding leader in the field of education and has been the guiding force which has placed Central High on its present high plane of efficiency.

Our earnest wish for him is many more years of useful service in his chosen field.

In Memoriam

MISS ALICE L. SCOTT

Miss Scott had a brilliant mind, and she shared her knowledge.

She had a warm heart, and she offered her friendship.

She had broad experience, and she guided us wisely.

She had a profound knowledge of the proportionate values of life, and taught us to select with care.

We cherish her memory.

Always in the past Central graduates have become well-known and highly respected members of society. But, of course, all good things must come to an end, for there is an exception to every rule. After graduating from Central in 1945, three of the boys, Bill Skinner, Jim Zerr and Harvey Wilson, chose the occupation of their heart's desire and joined the circus.

Being hard-working boys, and also good at strip poker, they were soon the owners. They renamed it the "Blue Top," and it soon became a world-famous outdoor circus. After years spent traveling to all parts

After the performance was over, Zerr, Skinner and Wilson gathered around their supper table and reminisced over their old high school days. The three talked of days at Central Junior when their Freshman graduating class of '42 was led by President Bob Jennings, Vice-President Nancy Galpin, Secretary Sonny Howard and Treasurer Winona Carpenter.

Then Harvey remembered how they had made the long tramp across the field to the Senior building

After a long, relaxed summer, which consisted of working only seven days a week on a farm, the three boys returned to school for their last year, and it seemed that a new era had been created. Almost every Senior in the building seemed to now be speaking a new language. A good girl was a G. G., a swell fellow was an S. F., and both were "peachy." "Peachy" seemed to be the sarcastic byword for anything the upperclassmen didn't like. There were many other initials, too numerous to mention, also censored. Wilson, Skinner and Zerr remembered having quite a hand in organizing this new language themselves.

But, nevertheless, they did have fun that year, for it was the year when, as Skinner says, they were "Big Seniors," and all three boys were on the Luminary staff. The first term staff was headed by Editors Don Fitzhugh and Warren Jones, second term by Bill Henderson and Marilyn Mooney. Mary Lee Travis

All three boys were members of the Hi-Y, and they remembered their good times at the Girl Reserve and Hi-Y dances. Bob Merrill and Warren Jones were the capable leaders of the Hi-Y, and G. R. was led by Winona Carpenter.

Then it was Variety Night time again, and the show was entitled Khaki Kavalkade. The Senior student directors were Don Fitzhugh and Bill LaRue. One of the funniest acts the boys had ever seen was in this Variety Night. It was a boys' ballet, with Jim Hartley, Bryce Mehrens, Bernard Carey and Bob Leedy.

About this time the heads around the table began to nod, for it was the wee hours of the morning when Zerr, Skinner and Wilson brought their reminiscing to an end, and all dropped off to sleep and dreamed of dear old Central and its unforgettable memories.

One year ago, all of us were quite uncertain about the future of our war efforts. Now, with ultimate victory a probability, we need to be reminded that wars do not settle the problems that brought them on. For example, it was Missouri's own Champ Clark who forty years after the Civil War said, "The Civil War did not settle the Negro problem. It created it." Eighty years after that war we are still searching for a solution.

The postwar period ahead is a vital one for you. You cannot become too familiar with the life and the history of all the peoples of the world. You need all the education you can possibly get. My hope for each is that you will measure up to the abilities and the opportunities which are yours. Then you can really share intelligently in the discussion of the tremendous world issues we older folk unfortunately are bequeathing to you, because we haven't been as smart as we hope you will be.

Another school year is drawing to a close, and many of you are to be graduated in the near future. In this new phase of your lives, you will be more dependent upon yourselves than ever before. Keep in mind that you have not finished your education, and that you will never be able to do so. Each day you will be confronted with new problems and new situations. Most of the facts you have learned in high school will soon be forgotten, but if you have learned the art of study and have acquired the desire for learning, you are indeed fortunate because these are the chief characteristics of an educated person.

Whatever you choose as your life's work and wherever you go, we, your teachers, wish you well.

Student Council

The group that did the most toward promoting the efforts of Central's student body this year was our Student Council.

Under the able leadership of Mr. G. R. Watson, this group of students discussed and took action upon important issues demanding attention, sponsored the Variety Night program, "Khaki Kavalcade," and was influential in breaking the sales record for Centralians, with more than 100 per cent of the school enrollment purchasing year books.

This year, Central received the added distinction of having its two Student Council presidents, Jim Howard and Jeanne Murphy, elected to the positions of vice-presidency and secretary of the All-City Student Council.

This year's first term officers were: Jeanne Murphy, president; Muriel Shearer, vice-president; Joyce Covey, secretary; Bernard Carey, sergeant-at-arms; Bill Skinner, critic; Don Fitzhugh, Junior Continuity Officer, 1944.

CENTRAL

NCE

To Central

Dear old Central, far-famed Central,
Thou shalt never fail;
Round thy name there clings a tendril
Of tradition's tale.

CHORUS

Thou art victor; fame has followed,
Clad in dignity;
May thy name to all be hallowed
By our love for thee.

Every student soon or later
In his walk of life
Greets the thought of Alma Mater
In his strength in strife.

Red Cross

Central High School has again gone "over the top" for the American Junior Red Cross. This year, not only in the drive for money in March did we accomplish this by exceeding our goal of $1,500 by $228.25, but many other services have been done in the practical and fine arts classes.

The wood shop has done a fine job in turning out 50 canes for convalescent war veterans. Also, they have finished 50 bedside tables, 50 chessboards and 3,200 chessmen.

There are two classes in Nutrition and many have taken advantage of the opportunity of the First Aid classes. There are 100 beginners in the Life-Saving group.

The home rooms have helped tremendously by filling 54 Christmas boxes for World War I and II veterans, and 50 Christmas boxes for children overseas. One of the little-known accomplishments of the Clothing classes is the many pairs of slippers that have been made for the war veterans. Magazines have been collected for the Olathe Air Base, for men who must stay in the air for long periods of time.

The fighting Eagles of 1944 did not have the highest percentage of games won, nor did they have a championship to boast about. However, this team was not surpassed in fighting spirit, cooperation, and willing teamwork.

The '44 gridiron squad, handicapped by inexperience and size, finished in a tie for fifth place with Southwest. Coach Harry Slaymaker had five returning letter men, only one of them having been a regular from the '43 squad. The rest of the positions were filled by boys from last year's second team.

The Blue Eagles started their season by defeating the Wyandotte Bulldogs 6 to 0. The score came in the closing minutes of the first half, when a pass from Jennings to Adams was carried over for the only touchdown of the game.

The following week, the Blue Eagles were dealt their first defeat when the powerful Ward Cyclones pushed across two last-half touchdowns to win by the score of 12 to 0.

The next week, league play began when the fast-stepping East Bears, with tricky and deceptive offensive, finally broke through the Eagles' defense to score two touchdowns and defeat Central 12 to 0.

A week later the Blue and White was upset by a highly improved Paseo squad. Central scored in the first two minutes of play after a Pirate punt was blocked, after which John Willingham plowed through the line to score. However, the Pirates came back with a strong passing attack which netted them two touchdowns and the game, the final score being 12 to 6.

Following the Paseo game, our team met the powerful and highly vaunted Northeast Vikings, defending champions from last year. Both teams battled furiously, neither being able to penetrate very deeply in the other's territory. It became a battle of the line with backs being held for short gains. The second half began in the same fashion. However, late in the third period the Vikings began cracking the tired but courageous Eagle line. They succeeded in striking pay dirt when John Glorioso bulled his way over from the two-yard line to score the only touchdown of the game. Thus the game ended with Northeast ahead 6 to 0.

The next Eagle foe was the Westport Tigers. Central gained a six-point lead when Bob Jennings broke off tackle and scooted thirty yards for a touchdown. This lead held until the final quarter, when the Tigers opened up with tricky passing and powerful line thrusts, and Nick Carras finally rammed over for a touchdown to tie the ball game at 6 all. That ended the scoring and the game with the final result—Central 6 and Westport 6.

Playing their first day game of the season, the Eagles were faced by the Southwest Indians. The first half was a see-saw battle, with neither team being able to gain much headway due to the fact that the field was muddy. However, after the start of the last half, the Eagles' offensive began to roll. The climax came when, from the Southwest 28-yard line, John Willingham twisted his way through to reach touchdown land and score the only counter of the game. The conversion was scored on a pass from Adams to Jennings. The rest of the game found the Eagles on the offense, with Howard and Marino doing most of the running. The game ended with the Eagles ahead 7 to 0 and driving for another touchdown.

The final game of the season brought together Central and Southeast. This was a very important game, for if the Knights won they would share the title, while if they lost they would drop to third place. Things looked bright for the Eagles when on the first play of the game Bud Finnell slipped off tackle and raced fifty yards down the side, only to be smeared on the ten-yard line. There the Knight line held and the Eagles were forced to give the ball up on downs. The Knights then punted out of danger, after which both teams battled between the forty-yard lines, neither team being able to gain much headway. Late in the third quarter a drive, headed by Grega and Finnell, carried to the ten-yard line, where once again the Knights' defense held and the Eagles were forced to surrender the ball. The result of the game was decided when, with only three minutes left to play, a Southeast quick-kick was fumbled by an Eagle player and rolled in the end zone, there to be recovered by the Eagles, preventing a touchdown, but costing the Eagles two points and the game. The final score hung Southeast 2—Central 0. Thus ended the football season for the Eagles in the year 1944.

The end of the season brought honor to Central High School when Ike Adams and Joe Sembler were named in the All-City Eleven, with Bob Jennings receiving an honorable mention rating.

At an award assembly in the school auditorium, Coach Harry Slaymaker presented twenty boys with first team letters. Ike Adams and Bryce Mehrens were elected co-captains of the squad by their teammates.

MR. FORBES

Not much is known of the hard work which Mr. Forbes does in connection with his job as athletic manager. This year marks the eighth year Mr. Forbes has handled the financial end of athletics, taking over the reins from Mr. Talmadge in 1938.

Since taking over, Mr. Forbes has added several features to the activity ticket and yet kept the price reasonable.

We wish to contribute these few words in recognition of our appreciation for the fine work he has done and will continue to do in the future.

Basketball is a fast-moving game that brings cheers and thrills to spectators. Although our team this year was not a champion in the league, it was in spirit. The three returning lettermen constituting the nucleus of the Eagle quintet this year were Rod Adams, Bill Wilson and Vince Henderson.

Opening the season against the De LaSalle Cadets, the Eagles' powerful team bounced the Cadets 42 to 29, and came back again the next week to defeat a hard-fighting Lillis High five by a 44 to 22 count. The same week, the Blue Eagles encountered the Wyandotte Bulldogs. A scoring spree, headed by Bill Wilson, in the final quarter enabled Central to gain a 35 to 31 victory. Coasting through a 36 to 15 victory over Hogan High, the Eagles then journeyed to Independence to nose out William Chrisman by the close score of 30 to 28.

With the beginning of league play, the Blue Eagles downed the East Bears 32 to 29. Holm led the scoring with 14 points.

The Eagles' seventh victory in a row was registered when they edged out the Southeast Knights by a 29 to 28 score. The battling Eagles' first loss was registered when the Southwest Indians downed them by the score of 37 to 28.

The Blue Eagles bounced back the next week by defeating the Paseo Pirates 25 to 17. The Eagles next journeyed to Kansas to encounter the Ward Cyclones. The taller Cyclones triumphed by the score of 45 to 23.

Defeat struck the Eagles again when the Manual Crimsons staged an uphill battle to upset them by a 43 to 42 score. In another close game, the Eagles edged out a constantly battling Westport team 23 to 22. The final game of the season brought together the Eagles and the Northeast Vikings. The Vikings defeated the Eagles 29 to 27.

The Eagles were recognized by having Ike Adams, Bob Holm and Roger Adams placed on the city's honorable mention list.

SECOND TEAM

1st Row—F. Kincheloe, J. Marino, P. Willingham, K. Webster, B. Jenkins.

Because of the necessity of going to press early, we will be unable to give a complete summary of the season. However, in the Eagles' first dual meet, they showed fine prospects by defeating Southeast, and should prove a strong contender for the championship in the city and state meets.

This year's Eagle track squad is built around last year's five lettermen, Bill Best, Don Fitzhugh, Jim Howard, Bob Merrill and Hank Menze. These boys have already proved themselves by winning or placing in their events.

Other fellows who proved themselves good enough in the interclass meet to represent Central this year are Bill Comer, Jim Hartley, John Willingham and Jasper Marino.

In the coming city meet that will be held at Southwest this spring, Central will be well represented in every event. The boys who will probably compete in the city meet are: High hurdles, Jim Howard and John Willingham; 100- and 200-yard dashes, Bill Best and Bill Comer; low hurdles, Don Fitzhugh and Jim Howard; 440-yard dash, Bob Merrill, Hank Menze and Bob Owens; 880-yard run, Alan Shields and Jack Dice; high jump, Jim Howard and John Willingham; broad jump, Bill Comer and John Willingham; shot-put, Jasper Marino and Joe Sembler; pole vault, Bob Stroup and Jim Hartley.

Bill Best is a heavy favorite to win both the 100- and 220-yard dashes, as he has turned in the best times so far. Bill Comer is favored to place either second or third in both of these events, with a possibility of scoring in the broad jump.

Jim Howard, Central's ace high jumper, may win the high jump, as he has cleared the bar at 5′ 9″.

Although Bob Burgard of East has beaten Shields, Central's half-mile ace, this event is expected to be a very close race, for Shields has turned in some good times.

Central's chances for winning the city championship are as good as those of any other school, but as we have had only one dual meet, no one can forecast too well the results. However, the Eagles' squad will be constantly working to produce a winning team, and we want to wish these boys the best of luck in their efforts to win the city championship.

Golf

In the annual fall tournament, Central High School was represented by five returning letter men from last year's team. These were Captain Bill Skinner, Warren Jones, Bob Weatherholt, Francis Darr and Alan Shields, all of whom are seniors.

The tournament was held at Swope Park Number Two golf course. It was played off in a series of four rounds, each round consisting of 18 holes. The 72-hole tournament lasted four days. When the team scores were compiled, it was found that Southeast had first place; Southwest, second; Central, third; Paseo, fourth, and Westport, last place.

Leading the indvidual scores for the tournament was Jim Neuner of Southwest with an average of 76. The leading Eagle golfer was Alan Shields with an average of 78. Shields ranked fourth in the tournament, closely followed by Bill Skinner and Warren Jones, both averaging 79.

With the coming of spring the boys are out sharpening up on their games for the spring tournament. Coach B. B. Blackford is expectng better results this time, as the boys will have had more experience. Here's wishing a fine golf team the best of luck.

Tennis

Early last fall, six boys represented Central in the Interscholastic Tennis tournament.

Lawrence Jaben, the only returning letter man from last year, climbed to the semi-finals, only to be beaten by Sebree of Southwest, who went on to win the singles crown. Jaben was the number one sngles man. Harry Friedman, number two singles man, lost out in early competition to Capman of Paseo.

The Eagles' number one doubles leam, composed of Cecil Schaffer and Francs Darr, was defeated by Leiter and Titus of Southwest in the second round. Leiter and Titus later became the doubles champions of the city. The number two Central team, consisting of Dan Gepford and Bill Best, fell before Apple and Phelps of Southwest.

The teams finished in this order: Southwest, first place; Central, second; Paseo, third; and Southeast, fourth.

Coach Nolan Alexander is expecting better results in the spring tournament. Good luck to a hard-fighting "net" team.

Girls' Sports

Miss Jones, Miss Purnell, Miss Hart.

Basketball Managers: V. Scott, P. Bury, G. Boren.

Volleyball Managers: K. Sever, E. Hart, D. Moore.

Hockey Managers: F. Haley, H. Simmons.

Sportsmanship was the chief keynote in the Girls' Physical Education this year. Hockey, basketball, volleyball and intramural sports got off with a good start, due to the co-operation of the managers. Playdays came and went with victories and losses alike. The teams were successful at times, and when it came to losses they did not give up.

Miss Purnell, Miss Jones and Miss Hart were not only fine instructors, but they encouraged the girls to work hard toward their goal. The coöperation of the teachers and the students alike has made the girls' gym department one of the finest we have ever had.

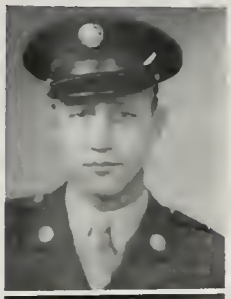
R. O. T. C.



Sergeant Neal A. Grubb

Cadet Major Dan Gepford

The Central R. O. T. C. Battalion began the year of 1944-45 under difficulty. Sergeant Carl Spikes was given a medical discharge from the army, and the place of the sergeant instructor was left vacant.

Sergeant Carl Hoffman was at Central for two weeks, but just as the battalion was getting started again, he was transferred to Southeast High.

All cadets were sincerely hoping that the third time would hold some charm, and fortunately it did. Again Central's faculty welcomed a new R. O. T. C. instructor, Sergeant Neal A. Grubb, the possessor of A.B. and M.A. Teachers College degrees and eleven years of previous teaching experience.

Dan Gepford stepped up the rungs of the ladder of rank, to lead the battalion as its cadet major. He was ably assisted by the adjutant, Cadet Captain John Putnam, and by the other officers.

Cadet Captain Kraft was the Battalion Plans and Training Officer. The job of Supply Officer was nicely handled by Cadet Lieutenant Charles Hauer and later by Cadet Lieutenant Bill Henderson, when the former graduated at midyear.

The Company Commanders of A, B, C and D companies, respectively, each holding the rank of Cadet Captain, were: Ben Staley, Herbert Brown, Jack Lovell and Joe Vogel. Each company had one First Lieutenant and one Second Lieutenant, balancing the organization.

The First Lieutenants were: A, Francis Darr; B, William McGovney; C, Charles Ditzler; D, Earl Mann. The Second Lieutenants: A, Herbert Mynatt; B, Donald Louk; C, Jack Duckworth; D, Harold Buschmeyer.

Central had one of the top-ranking rifle teams in the city, as shown when they repeated the victory of last year. The team was again awarded the third place cup by Lieutenant Colonel E. W. Bondy, the Professor of Military Science and Tactics of the Kansas City Regiment. The award was made in a special assembly, at which medals and ribbons were presented to the highest scoring members of the team. The medals were presented to Lloyd Briggs, Kenneth Harris, John Putnam, Carl Erickson, Neal Stuessi and Joe Vogel, the six highest marksmen. The ribbons for firing an average of 160 or better for the year were given to John Putnam, Carl Erickson and Neal Stuessi. Joe Vogel received a star for the ribbon he received last year. John Putnam was the captain of the Rifle Team.

The battalion took an active part in the Variety Night Show and Field Day. Many cadets enjoyed the annual R. O. T. C. Hop on March 24th.

All inspections were passed with flying colors, including one by Captain Carl Winee, who replaced Captain Little as the Assistant P. M. S. and T.

So another profitable year of R. O. T. C. came to an end.

On Saturday, March 24, the Central R. O. T. C. battalion held its twentieth annual military ball, more commonly referred to as the "hop."

Each year a "queen of the ball" and her two aides are chosen by the lucky cadets who attend. The queen for the year of 1945 was Miss Joanne Van Valkenburgh. She was escorted by Lieutenant Francis Darr. The aides were Miss Shirley White, escorted by Sergeant Norman Peterson, and Miss Norma Montgomery, escorted by Sergeant Earl Kenyon.

Nearly one hundred couples attended the dance. For many, it was their first formal dance, but all cadets and dates enjoyed a wonderful evening. The dancing was to the music of Dutch Holland's five-piece band, with Don Robinson, a student at Central High, glorifying the saxophone. This was the second consecutive year for Central's cadets to click their heels to the music of Dutch Holland's musicmakers.

The scene of the joyous occasion, the girls' gymnasium at Central, was so beautifully decorated as to be wholly unrecognizable as a gym. Everything went perfectly from the grand march to the last dance, and "a good time was had by all."

Senior Prophecy

As school draws to a close and Central's Seniors go their various ways, many wonder what life holds in store for them. With the aid of a crystal ball and Ouija board, "Ye ole Ed" has come to these conclusions on the prospects of some of our ancient and honored Seniors:

The year 1970—Don Fitzhugh is running for his second term as President of the United States. Bob Grega and Bob Jennings are his capable campaign managers; they manage to kiss all the babies—over 18.

After being excommunicated (kicked out, to Sophies and Juniors) from M. U., Bob Merrill is still chasing Esther Elliott. Bill Best is still slaving away at M. U.

Warren Jones is now owner and manager of the "Little Theater" at 12th and Central. Chuck Hoffman is chief interviewer and directs the chorus line. Joyce Blacker, Lillian Persky and Betty Smith have a sister act, and Jeanne Murphy and Beverly Shenkle are starred in the production. Bill LaRue, David Duly and Bill Riley have purchased the choice front row seats since they were discharged from the Air Corps for "bad eyes" from reading Esquire—which, by the way, is being edited by Bob Weatherholt.

Al Lease and Pat Larsen are talking over future plans . . . could it be love ? ? ? Marjorie Wood and Ike Adams are now married and are still paying on their honeymoon cottage.

Mary Lee Travis is editor of "Hu-m-m," successor to Vogue, and Terry Walkenhorst and Ernie Modlin are photographers for Woman's Home Companion.

Winona Carpenter, the Florence Nightingale of the century, is superintendent of nurses at St. Joe.

Jim Zerr, Bill Skinner, Jack Grigsby and Jim Thompson own the "Bug House Bugle," a successful and rising newspaper in their community.

Bill Faust is the flying sensation in Chuck Ditzler's and Harvey Wilson's circus. Also starring in this exciting panorama are Bud Finnell as the strong man, Diane Walker, a lady lion tamer, and Frances Haley as a daring aerialist.

Chuck Graves plays the flute in the New York Philharmonic Concert Orchestra. Nancy Galpin sits nightly by her radio listening, Diane Leforgee is also a member of the orchestra and is looking forward to a concert tour this spring.

Jody Van Valkenburgh has completed a two-year run on Broadway in "The Skies Are Blue, Too." Her leading man is none other than "Frankie" Darr. Rena Rae Ballenger is now a star of the silver screen in her latest picture, "Cigarette Lane," sequel to "Tobacco Road." Macey Shipley, that suave, debonair matinee idol of the "Bobby Socks Brigade," is currently being seen in "The Tale of the Pink Garter."

Bryce Mehrens is working for the Blue network. Each morning promptly at ten you can tune in and hear his cheery voice saying . . . "One, two, three, b-e-n-d, ladies . . ." Muriel Shearer gives an evening summary of lipstick hints, especially how to apply it and remove it, sponsored by "Lizzie's Luscious 'Luring Lipstick Company," owned by Elizabeth DeWitt. Helen Simmons is also on the air as sports commentator for Colgate Shave Cream.

Turning to the world of glamour, we find two of Central's alumni who were chosen as "Bathing Beauties of '59." They were Mary Beth Hess and Mary Vivian Gibbs. New York's leading model and latest "oomph" girl is none other than Bunnie Dwinnell. Joyce Covey has finished a successful career as a "Powers Model" and is now happily married to her M. U. hero.

In cafe society we find petite Pat Grinnell, known to her admiring audience as "The Elf," singing nightly for her supper in the "Blue Room" at the Waldorf-Astoria. Dick Finnell, nationally known composer and arranger, has just completed his latest ditty—"I'm Blue Over You," or otherwise known as "I'm Bluer Than the Bluest."

Mickey Abrams, Edwina Brown and Mary Margaret Cynthia Tate own the "Dew Drop Inn" and would make a huge profit if they would refrain from indulging in little samples. Their best customers are Rogers Adams, Don Raines and Larry Wedikind, who do-o-o drop in.

Shirley White has completed her latest best seller, "Forever Blue," and is taking an extended vacation (?) out of the country. Mary Virginia Hood has made a name for herself as a novelist. She has just written "The Green-Eyed Cat," a thrilling, blood-curdling mystery.

Wayne Cornish, All-American football, basketball, track, tennis, golf, swimming, boxing, bowling, baseball and wrestling star, has just added another championship to his list by winning the tiddlywinks tournament.

Annabelle Roark and Anna Mae Selle own the "Couldn't-Make-You-Look-Better-If-We-Tried" Cosmetics Company. It's cheaper that way.

Dorothy Bolenbaugh and Norma Montgomery are now teachers at our dear old Alma Mater. Dot teaches a girls' gym class, and Norma is head of the Biological Department, occupying "311." Also on the faculty is Bob Graham, geometry teacher, who really is a mathematical genius.

Helen Howard is now residing in Alaska—she simply craves snow. Wonder why?

Bobbie Morris has just divorced her eighth husband and has been seen nightly with Bill McGovney. Number nine coming up!

"Injun" Hartley and "Stumpy" Stafford are still "that way" about each other; Stumpy argues two can live as cheaply as one, but "Injun" doesn't think she can support him properly on her dime store wages.

Lee Storer is making quite a name for himself in Southern California. He is a lifeguard at the beach, and up to date he has saved two lives out of a possible 222,564,002½ chances. Keep up the good work, Lee!

Bernard Carey is quite a successful criminal lawyer. He gives cut rate prices to all relatives, neighbors and old C. F. C. brothers.

La Nell Meinsen is secretary to General Dan Gepford, who is now stationed in Washington, D. C., with the OWI. Marilyn Schreiber, the world's fastest typist, has just received another Congressional medal for breaking the world's record of typing with her toes.

In the field of art we chance to find Neoma Esrig, who is now famous for her version of the poor man's "Varga Girl."

And so the images fade and the light grows dim and Queen Ouija bids us farewell, ending our journey into the land of tomorrow.
